

Interplay between Business Activities and Environmental Impact

Fuji Electric is constantly working toward more efficient use of resources and energy and the reduction of waste throughout all of its business activities. We are also proactive in our efforts to be more environmentally conscious across the entire product and service lifecycle.

Mapping the Interplay between Business Activities and Environmental Impact in Japan

