A New Brand Emblem for Fuji Electric Products

Product Design Concept

- Silver color to reflect the product's advanced nature
- FE blue color to represent harmony between advanced nature and reliability
- Black color to instill a sense of reliability

An example of applying the emblem on our power conditioner

To raise its corporate value, Fuji Electric is stepping up its efforts in product design.

In fiscal 2013, we created a new corporate brand emblem for our products. The new emblem integrates a symbol and the company name. It will appear on all Fuji Electric products in the future.

Moreover, we will work to integrate product design that reflects our basic philosophy and corporate stance on product quality, and introduce it in stages starting from new and model-change products.

These efforts will increase global recognition of the Fuji Electric brand and increase our corporate value.
